is included under the County of Sussex.

With reference to the Visitations of Sussex, the late Dr. Marshall, F.S.A., York Herald (a member of the Council), in his "Notes on the Heralds' Visitations," which appeared in the "Genealogist," New Series, vol. iii., p. 36 (London, 1886), states :—

"If we except such pedigrees as have been printed by Berry in his Genealogies of this County, nothing has been done towards printing its Visitations, which were made in 1530 by Benolte (College of Arms, D. 13), in 1574-5 by Cooke (College of Arms, D. 11 and G. 18), in 1634 by St. George, containing 300 pedigrees (College of Arms, C. 27), and lastly by Bysshe, began in 1662 and finished in 1668 (College of Arms, D. 16)."

Anything within brackets, thus [], will of course be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

Preface.

THE Visitation of Kent contained in the following pages was commenced in 1663 and finished in 1668 by Sir Edward Bysshe, Knt., Clarenceux King of Arms.

The official copy in the Heralds' College is marked D. 18, and contains 353 Pedigrees, of which 322 are signed by the heads of the families.

Stowe MS. 621 in the British Museum, formerly the property of John Holland, is described in the catalogue: "Original Pedigrees of Kentish Families to 1663 (in which year Bysshe made a Visitation of the County), with the signatures of members of the several families, f. 2," and on the title page is written "A peice of the Visitation of Kent." This manuscript contains sixteen pedigrees in the same handwriting as the Heralds' College copy, and all signed by the heads of the families or their representatives, whereas the pedigrees of the same families are not signed in the College copy, so it would seem that some of the original pages had been mislaid and a copy substituted for them in the official copy in the College. These pedigrees are marked (Stowe MS. 621) in the reference.

Several pedigrees from this Visitation have been printed from time to time in the "Miscellanea Genealogica et Heraldica," and these are also noted in the references.

The late Dr. Jackson Howard, F.S.A., and Mr. Robert Hovenden, F.S.A., printed a selection of twelve pedigrees from this Visitation in 1887, with very copious notes of wills, monumental inscriptions, charters, and registers. These are referred to as (Howard's Pedigrees, 1887).

There are also copies of forty-six pedigrees to be found in Add. MS. 5507 in the British Museum. These are in the handwriting of Mr. Edward Hasted, the Kent historian. They are referred to as (Add. MS. 5507).

The manuscript from which this book is printed is believed to be complete. It was purchased by the Society from a bookseller, who stated that it came from the library of the late Mr. Joseph Foster, who had previously purchased it by auction at the sale of the late Dr. J. J. Howard's

MSS. It is neatly written, and the arms tricked by the late Mr. J. J. Eedes. The arms are reproduced direct from the MS. by photographic process.

Sir Edward Bysshe, who received the Royal Commission to make this Visitation, was formerly Garter King of Arms, and was made so about 1643 by the Commonwealth Parliament, and in 1646 votes were passed in the House of Commons that he should likewise be Clarenceux King of Arms; but after the Restoration he was by Act of Parliament obliged to quit the office of Garter in favour of Sir Edward Walker, but he obtained a patent, dated 10 March 1660-1, for the office of Clarenceux, which appointment was made in spite of the remonstrances of Sir Edward Walker and the College of Arms. He was knighted 20 April 1661.

There are several letters and documents relating to his differences with the College at this time in a volume of his letters, Add. MS. 22,883, and also in Lansdowne MS. 255. The latter is described in the catalogue as "Faults committed by him (Sir Edward Bysshe) in the Visitations of Essex, Norfolk, Suffolk, Surrey, Sussex, and Kent (fo. 50)." As regards Kent, both MSS. contain a list of "Ancient and Knowne Familyes without Armes," as follows: Boys, fo. 9, Coniers 9, Master 10, Oxinden 11, Gokin 12, Sandys 15, Boys 18, Knevett 24, Percivall 25, Boys 25, Tooke 28, Honywood 30, Wilford 32, Merywether 36, Lewkner 39, Hardress 42, Godfrey 44, Warham 45, Sprackling 47, Harfleet 49, Finch 57, May 61, Stawell 63, Osborne 72, Withins 73, Stapeley 75, Tasburgh 80, Palmer 83, Wroth 84, Bosvile 84, Bodenham 86, Boteler 94, Scot, 96, Bosvile 97, Sherington 101, Fogge 125, Moile 127, Norwood 128, Sprackling 129, Finch 129, Stourton 130, Heyman 132, Dering 134, St. Nicholas 139, Hales 140, Wiseman 148, Fowle 155, Pett 158, Cage 159, English 160, Barrington 163, Darrell 170, Buggin 171, Darrell 173, Biddulph 174, Ducey 177, Barnham 178, and on referring to the pedigrees of these families it will be found that there were no arms entered to them at this Visitation, though several families were descended from those to whom arms were allowed in the Visitation of 1619.*

Another fault alleged was that the "Title of Esqr (was) given to these Familyes without prooffe," viz., Kenwricke, fo. 12, Adie 14, Thomson 15, Boys 25, Peke 37, Denne 41, Godfrey 44, Nutt 48, Stawell 63, Barrell 165, Osborne 72, Davidge 73, James 83, Brograve 85, Blount 86, Bodenham 86, Heath 87, Thompson 88, Chace 90, Styche 93, Sherington 101, Theobald

* Harl. Soc. Pub., Vol. XLII.

104, Manning 106, Smith 159, English 160, Brewer 162, Ellis 165, Lake 171, Dike 172, Sandford 173, Biddulph 174, and it will be noted that in the pedigrees of these families many are described as Armiger or Gent.

These complaints were delivered to Sir Edward Bysshe by his own request by Sir Edward Walker, Garter King of Arms.* He apparently disregarded them, for at fo. 100 we find that an order was made by James, Earl of Suffolk, deputy to the Earl Marshal, prohibiting Sir Edward Bysshe to make any new Visitations until he had rectified the errors and defects of the books of his Visitation of Kent (among others). There is in Add. MS. 22,883 a summary of the alleged errors in this Visitation, as follows:—

“Descents therein entered without collaterals and otherwise imperfect 348
Of these without arms 211
Title of Esquires given to persons who have no right thereto for anything yet appears 33
Several Persons disclaiming right to Armes, and Title of Esq^{rs} and Gentry entered in the end of the Booke, doth not appeare by the Bookes to have been Disclaimed by Proclamation which ought to have been done.”

It is curious to note that these complaints were mostly made between 1670 and 1674, whereas the Visitation is said to have been finished in 1668, but there is no further reference to them in the correspondence. Sir Edward Bysshe died in 1679.†

The Visitation does not appear to have been altered. It contains 353 pedigrees, of which 338 are signed, and 142 coats of arms, and a list of 51 Disclaimers. The list of Disclaimers is entered in the official Visitation, but the surnames only of the families are given. In Add. MS. 8931 is a copy of what is evidently the draft of the Proclamation which ought to have been published. It is as follows:—

“The King's Most Excellent Majestic being desirous that the Nobility and Gentry of this Realme should be preserved in every degree as well in Honour as in worshipping, and that every person and persons, bodies Politique Corporate and others should bee knowne in their Estates and Misteries without confusion and disorder, Have authorized me; EDWARD BYSSHE, Knight Clarenceux King of Armes, of the South East and West partes of this Realme of England from the River of Trent

* Add. MS. 22,883.

† “Dict. Nat. Biog.,” viii., 164.

Southward; not only to visitt all the Counties within his Province to peruse and take knowledge Survey and view of all manner of Armes Creasts, Cognizances and other like devices, with the notes of the descents Pedigrees and marriages of all the Nobility and Gentry therein throughout conteyned, But alsoe to reprove controle and make infamous by Proclamac'on all such as unlawfully and without just Authority vocac'on or due calling doe or have done or shall usurpe to take upon him or them any name or Title of Honour or Dignity as Esq. or Gentleman or other as by his Ma^{ties} gracious Comission under the great Seale of England more plainly may appeare Know yee therefore that I the said Clarenceux King of Armes for the Accomplishm^t of his Majesties desire & furtherance of his Majesties Service that way having made survey of the County of Kent have found these persons whose names are underwritten presumptuously and without any good ground or authority to have usurped the name and title of Gentleman contrary to all right, & to the Auntient Custome of this land, and the usage of the law of Armes, w^{ch} name and Title they are from henceforth noe more to use or take upon them upon such further paine and peril as by the Lords Comissioners for the office of Earle Marshall of England shall bee inflicted and laid upon them, whereof alsoe I have thought good heere to advertize all other his Ma^{ties} good and loveing Subjects that they tender his Ma^{ties} pleasure and desire in this behalfe, that they from henceforth shune & avoide the like, & forbear to use in any writing or otherwise the addic'on of Esq. or Gent. unlesse they be able to stand to, & Justifie the same by the law of Armes, and the lawe of the Realme.

"Given att day of in the yeare of our Lord God 1665."

Then follows the list of Disclaimers as on the next page.

It has previously been printed in the "Genealogist," vol. iii., p. 206, to which periodical it was contributed by Mr. Chas. H. Athill, the present Richmond Herald of Arms, and a member of the Council of the Harleian Society, to whom I am much indebted for assistance in preparing this Visitation for the press.
